

THANK YOU ^{to our} SPONSORS

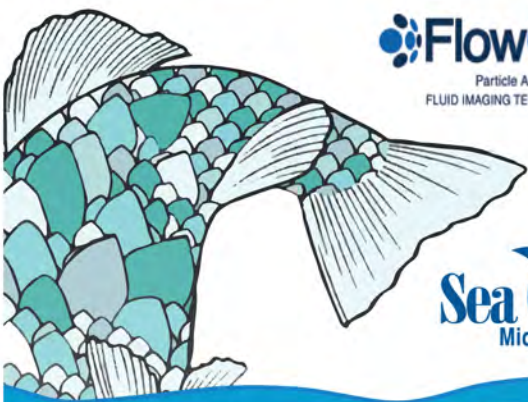

The University of Vermont

CMU- Institute for Great Lakes Research

Annis Water Resources Institute

Ohio Sea Grant College Program

US Fish and Wildlife Service

NEW VIEWS NEW TOOLS IAGLR

58th Annual Conference on Great Lakes Research

iaglr.org/iaglr2015

Scan code with smart
phone to visit
conference website

Burlington, Vermont
MAY 25-29, 2015
at the University of Vermont

EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

The University of Vermont is pleased to host the annual Conference on Great Lakes Research for the first time. Program events and activities will include:

- Welcome social featuring locally-made ice cream
- Poster reception
- BBQ at ECHO Lake Aquarium and Leahy Center for Lake Champlain
- Banquet with keynote speaker Art Cohn, Lake Champlain Maritime Museum
- Workshop: Introduction to R
- Harbor cruises on UVM Research Vessel Melosira
- Tours of the Rubenstein Ecosystem Science Lab

700+ Attendees

Earth Sciences: Climate, Hydrology & Paleolimnology

Data Management & Modeling

Innovative Approaches to Science, Education & Outreach

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR GREAT LAKES RESEARCH

PLENARY SPEAKERS AT IRA ALLEN CHAPEL

MAUDE BARLOW

11^{AM} THURSDAY, MAY 28TH

National Chairperson of the Council of Canadians & Food and Water Watch Chair Recipient of 12 honorary doctorates, 2009 Planet in Focus Eco Hero Award, and 2011 EarthCare Award; author of Blue Future: Protecting Water for People and the Planet.

JAKE VANDER ZANDEN

11^{AM} TUESDAY, MAY 26TH

Professor, Center for Limnology University of Wisconsin - Madison Teaches the world's largest limnology course; recipient of the IRPE Prize in Limnetic Ecology, the J.C. Stevenson Memorial Award, and the UW-Madison Chancellor's Teaching Award.

460 Presentations

105 Posters

Nutrients

Nearshore Zones

Contaminants

Novel & Advancing Technologies

Food Webs & Ecosystems

