

2021 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
IAGLR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nomination Deadline: March 5, Midnight

The International Association for Great Lakes Research seeks candidates for positions on its Board of Directors. We welcome your involvement and encourage you to stand for election or nominate someone you believe would benefit the association!

Current openings include:

- 2 Regular U.S. Members (3-yr term, 2021-2024)
- 1 Regular Canadian Member (3-yr term, 2021-2024)
- 1 Canadian Student Member (2-yr term, 2021-2023)
- Secretary (3-yr term, 2021-2024)
- Treasurer (4-yr term (2021-2025))
- International Board Member (3-yr term 2021-2024)

If you are interested in helping the association by standing for election for one of these positions, would like to suggest people to stand for election, or have questions, please contact Paul Sibley, IAGLR Past President and current Nominations Committee Chair: nomchair@iaglr.org or psibley@uoguelph.ca.

Candidates are required to email the following materials one of the above email addresses by Friday March 5, 2021:

- Resume or CV
- Brief statement as to why they seek election, including past involvement with IAGLR

All candidates must be current IAGLR members at the time of election. Additionally, student candidates must be enrolled in graduate school.

The board is elected by the members of the association and meets for two days three times each year to conduct governance of the association. It consists of at least nine regular members from Canada and the United States who serve three-year terms. The board also has two student members, one from Canada and one from the United States, with each serving two-year terms. In addition, the association recently added an international position for a three-year term for a member representing a nation other than the United States or Canada, including Tribal Governments, First Nations, and Métis. Association members also elect the secretary (three years) and treasurer (four years).

The 2021 elections will be conducted online. Please watch for your ballot notification arriving soon.
