

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
LARGE LAKE CHAMPION AWARD

Deadline: March 1

Do you know someone whose work has made significant contributions to sharing the social, economic, and ecological understanding of large lakes of the world? Consider nominating that person for the IAGLR Large Lake Champion Award!

We look to honor the luminaries and rising voices for large lakes that will help shape IAGLR for years to come and pave the way for the association's future.

Nomination Package

Your nomination package should include the following:

- A nomination letter, clearly indicating how the nominee made significant contributions to sharing the social, economic, and ecological understanding of large lakes of the world.
- The nominee's resume
- Minimum of three letters of support from regular members of IAGLR

Email nomination package by March 1 to awardnominations@iaglr.org

Criteria

Nominees will be evaluated based on community and social impact, excellence in contributions in the areas of research, policy, education, communication, or outreach to large lakes of the world, with a particular focus on their contributions within the last two years.

Eligibility

There are no restrictions for eligibility. We encourage nominations from a diversity of backgrounds, including individuals who are not currently regular IAGLR members.
