

2018 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS IAGLR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nomination Deadline: February 16, Midnight

The International Association for Great Lakes Research seeks candidates for positions on its Board of Directors. We welcome your involvement, and encourage you to stand for election!

Currently, six openings exist:

- 1 Secretary (3-year term, 2018-2021)
- 3 U.S. Regular members (3-year term, 2018-2021)
- 1 member representing a nation other than Canada or the United States (3-year term, 2018-2021)
- 1 U.S. Student member (2-year term, 2018-2020)

If you are interested in helping the association by standing for election for one of these positions, or you would like to suggest people to stand for election, please contact one of the Nominations Committee Co-Chairs: Elizabeth Hinchey Malloy and Paul Sibley at nomchair@iaglr.org. Candidates are required to email the following materials to nomchair@iaglr.org by February 16.

- Resume or CV
- Brief statement as to why they seek election, including past involvement with IAGLR

All candidates must be current IAGLR members at the time of election. Additionally, student candidates must be enrolled in graduate school.

The board is elected by the members of the association and meets three times each year to conduct the business of the association. It consists of at least seven regular members from Canada and the United States who serve 3-year terms. The board also has two student members, one from Canada and one from the United States, with each serving 2-year terms. In addition, the association has added a new position this year to be filled for a 3-year term by a member representing a nation other than the U.S. or Canada, including Tribal Governments, First Nations, and Métis. Association members also elect the secretary and treasurer to the board for 3- and 4-year terms, respectively. The president and vice president are elected by the board for a 1-year term from the current board roster. The presidency typically alternates between Canada and United States.

The 2018 elections will be conducted online this spring.
