

2020 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS IAGLR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nomination Deadline: March 1, Midnight

The International Association for Great Lakes Research seeks candidates for positions on its Board of Directors. We welcome your involvement, and encourage you to stand for election, or nominate someone you believe would benefit the Association!

Current openings include:

- 2 Canadian Regular members (3-year term, 2020-2023)
- 1 United States Regular member (3-year term, 2020-2023)
- 1 United States Student member (2-year term, 2020-2022)

If you are interested in helping the Association by standing for election for one of these positions, would like to suggest people to stand for election, or have questions, please contact Michael Twiss, IAGLR Past-President and current Nominations Committee Chair: nomchair@iaglr.org.

Candidates are required to email the following materials to nomchair@iaglr.org by March 1:

- Resume or CV
- Brief statement as to why they seek election, including past involvement with IAGLR

All candidates must be current IAGLR members at the time of election. Additionally, student candidates must be enrolled in graduate school.

The Board is elected by the members of the Association and meets for two days three times each year to conduct governance of the Association. It consists of at least nine regular members from Canada and the United States who serve 3-year terms. The Board also has two student members, one from Canada and one from the United States, with each serving 2-year terms. In addition, the Association recently added an International position for a 3-year term by a member representing a nation other than the U.S. or Canada, including Tribal Governments, First Nations, and Métis. Association members also elect the Secretary and Treasurer for 3- and 4-year terms, respectively. The President and Vice President are elected by the Board for a 1-year term from the current board roster. The presidency typically alternates between Canada and United States.

The 2020 elections will be conducted online, please watch for your ballot notification arriving soon.
